

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Thursday- 27 March 1953

The House Armed Services Committee unanimously approved the bill to establish a Deputy Director for CIA. Their action came in the form of striking out everything after the enacting clause in S. 1110 and substituting the language of H. R. 4224. This will make it possible for the Senate to accept the bill on the floor without referral to Committee or going to conference.